PROTEST SUNDAY SWIMMING HERE

CHURCHES OPPOSED TO NEW POOL RUNNING ON SUNDAY

CITE THREE OBJECTIONS

Violates Past Custom and Sentiment They Claim—Is Not Unlawful—Aley Cites His View

Action protesting the opening of the Sanitary Swimming Pool on Sundays has been taken by the ministers and official boards of four of the five Protestant churches of Maryville, and action will be taken by the fifth at its coming board meeting. This action has been taken by the churches because of three reasons, namely:

First: Maryville has always prided itself as a fine family town and an educational center where the boys and girls have every educational advantage and moral protection and we wish to keep our town as such. With commercialized Sunday amusements a town the size of Maryville cannot be kept as such.

Second: Maryville has never been an open or commercialized town on Sunday and we don't want it to be. The opening of one commercialized amusement here on Sunday would open the way for others.

Third: A colored church, which holds afternoon and evening services, adjoins the pool and the pools activities on Sunday would constitute a menace and a disturbance of the peace to them.

George Aley, one of the proprietors of the new pool has announced his intentions through an advertisement, of opening the pool from 1 o'clock to 7 o'clock on Sundays. In an interview with a Democrat-Forum reporter, Mr. Aley said it was far from his intentions to detract from the church services on Sunday.

"The hours from 1 o'clock to 7 o'clock does not conflict with any church services," he said. Mr. Aley takes the position that Sunday afternoon is now regarded by nearly everyone as a time for recreation and he believes it is as proper for young people to spend their time at a properly conducted and properly chaperoned pool as for them to go joy riding or to Big Lake or Clarinda. He further stated that he believed it was better for the boys to be at the pool with life protection than to be in some hole in the river, and that it was as proper to swim Sunday afternoon as to play golf or go joyriding.

"It is a commercialized amusement open on Sunday," said one pastor, "and we are afraid that it will provide an inroad for others on Sunday, such as picture shows, pool halls, and the like. There is no violation of the law in Sunday opening, but sentiment has prevailed in Maryville against such commercial operations on that day and it has been respected by the picture show men and others. In order to keep this sentiment alive we are bringing this matter to the attention of the people."

Elsewhere in this issue of the Democrat-Forum is an advertisement by the theatre men of Maryville, saying that the opening of the pool on Sunday will in no way influence or cause them to open their theatres on Sunday.

There is no ordinance in Maryville to prevent the opening of commercialized amusements on Sunday. The churches and ministers claim that sentiment in the past has always been opposed to such and they merely wish this same sentiment to prevail as it has been in the past. Some petitions have been circulated in protest of the Sunday opening of the pool. Opinions, both pro and con, have been expressed on the subject.

May Solve Reparation Problem Next Week

However, Diplomatic Agents Are Proceeding Cautiously—England Wants Further Explanations

London, June 13—While diplomatic agents are proceeding cautiously with Paris, Rome and Berlin, a solution of the German reparation crisis was obviously as far off as ever today. The cabinet canvassed the situation but was not expected to reach a final decision until next week. Great Britain has asked France and Germany to make further explanations of their announced policy without attempting to add any further proposals.

Two Suits Filed in Circuit Court Today

Two suits were filed in the circuit court today.

Alta Hendricks filed a divorce suit against her husband, Alfred Hendricks.

An account suit was filed by W. D. Heekin against H. Day. Heekin alleges that he held a public sale on January 16, 1922 and defendant purchased 200 hedge posts for $50. He states that settlement of this amount has not been made and is suing for the collection of $58 with interest from January 16, 1922.

VACATION PLANNING POPULAR THING NOW

MANY PLACES TO GO

Ranging From Nearby Places and Ozarks To Colorado, Coast and Northern Lakes—Costs Figured

Vacation time is here. Or at least "vacation planning" time is here. Where to go is still a puzzling question with many Maryville people. Probably the next question to be asked is, "How much does it cost?" Mr. Average Man wants to know how far he can go with his "little wad" that he has saved for vacation purposes. From information obtained from the Wabash and Burlington passenger agents the Democrat-Forum has compiled the railroad cost to many popular vacation places, near and far. Consult your bank book, then refer to the list below and you will know just about how far away you can get on your vacation.

Bean Lake, Mo.	$4.95
Bigelow, Mo.	6.08
Langdon, Mo.	7.76

Southern Missouri points in the Ozarks are becoming more popular each year, says W. E. Goforth, Burlington agent. Time limit to these places are October 1. The following are some of the popular places there:

Branson, Mo.	$17.49
Hollister, Mo.	17.49
Lanagan, Mo.	15.65
Noel, Mo.	15.94
Seligman, Mo.	17.34
Galena, Mo.	17.49
Sulphur Springs, Ark	16.21
Siloam Springs, Ark.	17.34

If your bank account is larger you may have in mind a trip to the northern lakes, Colorado or to the coast. Raymond Barry, Wabash agent, says many tickets are being sold to the coast. The following are the rates to some of these places with liberal stop over privileges, choice of routes going and coming, and time limit until October 31:

Minneapolis, St. Paul	$25.00
Minneapolis and Duluth	29.50
Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo	28.65
Loveland, Colo., Lyons, Ft. Collins and Estes Park	31.65
Ogden and Salt Lake, Utah	50.25
Portland and Seattle	90.00

(Boat trips available from these points.)

San Francisco, Los Angeles, Long Beach and other California points	$72.00
Yellowstone National Park gateway	50.00
Glacier National Park gateway	58.26

Many vacationists, of course, are not interested in time tables, rates or railroads for they will travel in their own private car via the gasoline route. Valuable information for the motor tourist is now available in the 1923 Associated Tours Guide, the official road book of the Automobile Club of America.

By following the carefully selected itineraries and clearly defined road maps with which the Guide's 104 pages are filled, summer vacationists are enabled to tour by motor through the most charming selections of the Eastern United States and Canada to seaside, mountain and country resorts. All tours in the Guide are compiled with a view to scenic charm; the roads mapped are the best stretches of hard highway that the country affords.

For transcontinental motor motorists there is a double page Atlantic to Pacific road map showing the several routes across the United States, accompanied by complete itineraries

KU KLUX KLAN MAY BE FORMED HERE

SECRET MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT IN W. O. W. HALL

ABOUT 125 WERE THERE

Address Given By Zack Harris On "Americanism"— Tells Purposes Of Ku Klux Klan

About 125 persons attended a meeting last night to hear Zack Harris, a national lecturer on the Ku Klux Klan, its purposes and work. The crowd consisted of men engaged in almost every occupation. A local minister was there, several business men, a county official, a number of laboring men and several local professional men—all were in the audience.

Admission to the meeting was by ticket only. These tickets were distributed yesterday afternoon. Men from nearby towns were in charge of the meeting last night. These towns have already organized orders of the Ku Klux Klan.

The meeting was held at the Woodmen of the World dance hall. All the curtains in the hall were lowered and the meeting was held behind a locked door.

Harris lectured on "Americanism." He is in charge of organization work for the Ku Klux Klan throughout the United States and has organized orders in many states.

"Eighty per cent of the people in the United States have no conception of the obligations of American citizenship," he began. "In the presidential election of 1920, less than one-half of those entitled to vote exercised their right of suffrage. It is of vital importance that we arouse everyone to the obligations of citizenship.

"The liberties of freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom of press, freedom of petition and freedom of assembly are even more important than the material side of our country. These are the heritage of our fathers to us and passed on to us and our children down through the ages.

"Any movement that has a tendency to undermine the principles of liberty is against the best interests of the American people." Harris then told his hearers that every nation had a material and spiritual side and that no man had dreamed dreams of the material possibilities of this country. However, the spiritual side of a nation guarantees liberaties to the people and this is far more important than the mere material, Harris said.

"The United States has always reached out for liberty," he said, "In 1812, it was for liberty of the seas; in 1848, for the liberty of Texas; in 1863, for the liberty of a race; in 1898, for the liberty of Cuba, and in 1918, for the preservation of ideals. Doesn't this make our nation worth thinking for, worth talking for, and worth acting for?"

Harris then discussed the immigration problem which is facing America. He called attention to the great increase in immigration, and the change in the type of immigrant from the northern Anglo-Saxon to the southern Latin and Slavic races. The influx of aliens will eventually cause a lowering of American ideals, he said. Harris said that only 49 per cent of the persons now living in the United States were native white-born Americans.

He then defined the Ku Klux Klan as an organization for native white-born Americans only, in order to promote fraternalism among the American people.

He declared that in secrecy there is power, and that is why the Ku Klux Klan with its 2 million members is perhaps the most powerful single organization in America, he said.

Native white-born Americans, Gentile, Protestant and good moral character are the four qualifications for membership to the Ku Klux Klan. According to Harris, the Ku Klux Klan stands for:

The tenets of the Christian religion.

Protection of the pure womanhood.

Just laws and liberty.

Closer relationship of pure Americanism.

The upholding of the Constitution of the United States.

The sovereignty of state rights.

The separation of church and state.

Freedom of speech and press.

Closer relationships between capital and American labor.

Preventing the causes of mob violence and lynchings.

Preventing unwarranted strikes for foreign labor agitators.

Prevention of fires and destruction of property by lawless elements.

The limitation of foreign immigration.

The much needed local reforms.

Law and order.

It is said that a local order of the Ku Klux Klan will be formed in Maryville next Tuesday night.

MILITARY PRESSURE FORCES PRESIDENT HUNG TO LEAVE

DEMAND ACTION OF U. S.

American Interests in China say Condition Is Intolerable—Troops May Occupy Peking

Peking, June 13—Withstanding until noon today the military pressure brought to bear to force his resignation, President Li Yuan Hung, at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, departed on a special train for Tien Tsin, accompanied only by the vice minister of war and one other member of his old cabinet and thirty soldiers as guards.

His departure was brought about by the strong pressure and threats of the Christian general, Seng Jui Siang, who requested Hung's immediate departure from Peking. Complete occupation of the city by General Siang's troops is expected any moment. The city remains quiet.

Shanghai, June 13—The American Association of China and the American Chamber of Commerce, following a meeting today, united in a cable today to Secretary of State Hughes, a demand that the United States act to end the intolerable conditions existing in China.

American lives are being endangered and business prestige destroyed" by the lack of strong action," the message said. EXODUS FROM FARM ALARMS A SENATOR

U. S. FAST APPROACHING AGRICULTURAL SUICIDE

SUGGESTS TWO REMEDIES

Would Permit Enough Immigrants To Operate All Farms Or Insure Farmers a Living Wage

Washington, June 13—America is fast facing agricultural suicide as a result of the loss of manpower on her farms, Senator T. H. Caraway, Democrat, of Arkansas, declared today in urging government action to remedy the situation. Unless immigration from the farms stops, he warned, the nation will be brought to face with a serious food shortage within five years. Caraway asserted that he would sponsor remedial legislation in the next Congress.

The Arkansas senator proposed two legislative remedies. First, to admit sufficient immigration to settle and operate all of the farms, or second, to provide a living wage for the workers of the farm by insuring them an adequate compensation for their products.

"The farm problem has been the nation's problem, effecting the people of the city even more than those remaining on the farms. Food is comparatively cheap now, but once production is seriously reduced on our farms food prices will soar. If we let the farmer alone he will solve his own problems but it will be at a frightful cost to the public," Caraway said.

"Immigration," he said, "started from the farm by the farmers who envied the $8 to $12 a day job of his city nephew." Caraway declared that the agriculture man shortage would "dawn suddenly on the nation only by arrival of a sensational cost of food. It will have the same effect as a frightful catastrophe and that will be the nature for those who will be unable to pay the high prices for food," he warned.

Finish Testimony for Plaintiffs in Will Suit

Dublin, June 13.—Mrs. Ethel C. White, daughter of the late Richard Croker, leader of Tammany in New York concluded testimony for the plaintiffs today in the legal action to break the Croker will.

Counsel for Mrs. Bula Croker, second wife of the former politician, immediately moved that the case be dismissed contending that no evidence had been introduced to prove undue influence over the testator. However, this motion was over-ruled.

The Croker children, by his first wife, contested the will, after it was ascertained that the second wife was the sole beneficiary of the estate of the former Tammany leader.

NEW BULGARIAN REGIME WAVERS

PEASANTS MAY OVERTHROW NEW GOVERNMENT AT SOFIA.

NEWS CENSORED CLOSELY

Belgrade, June 13—Peasant resentment to the Bulgarian revolutionary movement is increasing, according to private advices from the frontier today. Owing to the strength of the peasant party in Bulgaria, the opinion is held in some circles here that the new Sofia government will not last.

London, June 13—Further disorders were reported from Bulgaria today but the real situation is obscured by rigorous censorship imposed by the new revolutionary government at Sofia.

Revolutionary troops engaged the body guard of former Premier Stambulisky, but the outcome of the skirmish is not known. M. Douralikowff, former minister of agriculture in the cabinet, was arrested when trying to reach the Turkish border.

Unconfirmed reports from Paris said that a large peasant army, estimated at 100,000, was moving upon Sofia. The Kankoff government at Sofia has advised the diplomatic corp that there will be no change in Bulgaria's foreign policy and that the government's chief aim is to maintain Balkan peace.

Pension Examiner Will Come to Maryville

All Persons In Nodaway County Applying For Pensions Under Blind Act Must Be Examined Then

The application blanks to be filled out by persons receiving pensions under the Blind Pension Act, have been received by Judge J. F. Robertson. He has also been notified that some time after June 24, an examiner will be sent to Maryville to examine all persons applying for pensions under the new act passed by the Fifty-second General Assembly.

There are forty-six persons in Nodaway County receiving blind pensions. All of these will have to be examined again to see if they are still qualified to receive allowances under the new act.

The new law will go into effect June 24. It is far more drastic than the old one and will undoubtedly disqualify many persons receiving pensions under the present act. A graduated scale of blindness is provided and the amount of income received from property is considerably lowered. At the time this act was passed, it was estimated that it would reduce the number of pensioners about 25 per cent. A copy of the new law has not yet been received by Judge Robertson.

May Extend 3-Mile Limit to 12 Miles

TULSA IS FLOODED BUT OUT OF WATER

FLOOD WATERS BREAK INTO WATER PLANT THIS MORNING

1 DEATH IN THE FLOOD

Car Tracks Washed Out and Hundreds of Homes Partly Submerged—Danger Not Passed.

Tulsa, Okla., June 13—With water from the flooded Arkansas River swirling thru its lower sections, this city is without a water supply today. The rising current reached the fire boilers shortly before 2 o'clock this morning. Throughout the night seventy-five men struggled desperately to insure protection to the power and light plant. Despite the sand bags thrown up around the plant, a rise of a few more inches in the water will put the entire plant out of commission.

The Arkansas River is already close to the 20-foot stage and is expected to rise a foot more before the crest is reached. The section of the city, known as West Tulsa, where the power plant is located, and the community between Tulsa and Sand Springs, have been the worst sufferers in the flood.

Hundreds of houses are partly submerged and only a few have been swept away as most of the inundation is due to back waters. Only one life has been lost, that being a negro, who went swimming in the flood waters.

Street car lines have ceased to operate from the main part of the city to West Tulsa on the other side of the Arkansas River. Many tracks have been washed out but so far the larger bridges have withstood the pressure. Damage has been estimated at several hundred thousand dollars.

Oklahoma City, June 13. — A new flood menace loomed here today when it was reported that the city dam and earthworks were crumbling away and quick action would be necessary to save the concrete works. Should the concrete works break at the present stage of the North Canadian River officials said that the damage, amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars, would be inevitable.

Slim Chance for S. W. Kansas Wheat

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY

THE KU KLUX DELUSION.

The following editorial from the St. Louis Globe-Democrat of recent date is timely as efforts are being made to organize a Ku Klux Klan here:

Whatever else may be thought of the Ku Klux ceremonies at Creve Coeur Lake, Wednesday night, it was an impressive demonstration of that strange and sinister power of that strange and sinister organization. Undoubtedly the strength of the Ku Klux movement lies in its appeal to some of the most impelling of human emotions. It appeals to religion, it appeals to patriotism, it appeals to the sense of the mystical and the dramatic, it appeals to traditional antipathies, racial and sectarian, in every degree from mere prejudice to fanatical animosity, it appeals to both good and bad in men, and so garbs the bad that it takes on the appearance of righteousness. Thereby it draws into its ranks thousands of well-meaning people who sincerely believe they are doing right and are contributing to a force for national welfare.

That they are mistaken, misguided, deluced, does not alter the fact that they are for the greater part sincere. And this sincere belief in the righteousness of their motives justifies in their minds the propriety of their methods, and makes the movement all the more dangerous. For it is dangerous, gravely dangerous, to domestic peace, to American principles and American institutions. It is as far removed from Americanism, both in motive and method, as Prussian autocracy. For the foundation of America is liberty, liberty of conscience, liberty of thought, liberty of action within the law, and in the exercise of that liberty it does not distinguish between persons or creeds or races. The essence of liberty so established is toleration. Liberty and intolerance are absolutely incompatible in any land, but among a people such as ours, composed of such diverse elements, intolerance is inevitable destructive of liberty.

This cannot be a nation in which class can organize against class, creed against creed or race against race continue to be American if such organization is successful in depriving its antagonist of its liberty or equality under the law; and every attempt to array one against another is an assault upon the foundations of liberty. One is not less an American who is a Catholic. One is not less an American who is a Jew. There is not a single American citizen, unless of pure Indian blood, who is not the descendant of immigrants, or of those who came to this land from other lands. And when our government was established liberty and equality were assured to all save the slaves, and white fought white through four years of fratricidal war to establish that same liberty for the black man. Catholic and Protestant, Jew and Gentile, white and black, all are Americans.

Our institutions and our laws provide the means and the methods for the maintenance of the recognized right of every American citizen, the rights of every class and race and creed, and the means of remedy for every political ill. Public opinion, freely arrived at, and freely and openly expressed, is the only influence by which true Americanism can be supported and advanced Secret organization for public ends is contrary to the spirit of American institutions, and cannot be effective save at the sacrifice of principles that are the fundamentals of Americanism, the principles upon which and by which alone America has achieved her high place in the world. The Ku Klux movement is founded upon intolerance, and America is a living, burning protest against intolerance, that seed more disaster and more inhumanity, though always convinced of its own righteousness, than any other influence in the red record of mankind.

SELF CONTROL ON BALL GROUNDS

The American ball game crowd contains a good deal of explosive material. As you hear the anxious partisans of the contending teams yelling "Robber," "Take him out," etc., a stranger would think that a general fight was coming. The fans get extremely angry over decisions of His Majesty the Umpire, or alleged unfairness of opponents.

If a South American crowd with their Latin and Indian blood were to show equal emotion, you might expect that daggers would soon be drawn, and there would likely be riot and murder.

It is significant of American temper, that all this hot blood manifested at ball games rarely breaks into violent action. While the unmpire traditionally is supposed to risk taking a licking, it is very rare that he gets anything worse than hard names. No matter how the contending players may yell and threaten, something seems to hold them back.

After a few moments of arguing, the conservative element in any American crowd begins to get disgusted. "Play ball" is heard from all over the grand stand. Our people realize that good sportsmanship demands that the worsted team take its ill fortune good naturedly. If it is getting a raw deal, it is better to submit and get a better referee the next time.

These indications of prevailing temper are full of hope for the future of our country. The people who are thus disposed to submit to the rule of authority in their games, will in the long run do the same thing in the bigger game of business and industry. If the young men learned nothing more out of baseball than the lesson of taking defeat with good grace and submitting to properly constituted authority, the time devoted to it would be well spent.

POLITICS PLAYED WITH THE FLEET.

Polities reduces some branches of the public service to an absurd proposition. It is well known that almost without exception men have been appointed to places on the shipping board, Republicans and Democrats, who knew absolutely nothing about handling ships, and whose only recommendation was their familiarity with political steering gear. Talk about building up a merchant marine by political methods, and competing for shipping with highly trained maritime men of other nations, who have grown up on board of ships, so to speak, and who do not have to play politics, should give the people some comprehension of the fallacy of governmental operation of transportation organizations on land and sea. American built ships are still rotting in squads and flocks in our great harbors, like abandoned decoy ducks in a hunting preserve. The palsied hand of politics tries to manipulate these fleets, valued originally at some three billions, which the taxpayers are gradually being called upon to liquidate. Coleridge in the Ancient Mariner fitly described this kind of a merchant marine as "painted ships on a painted sea."

TALKERS AND DOERS.

Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, recently told a London audience that the talking classes occupy the center of the stage in America, while the doers and the thinkers have less chance to exercise influence. The same sentiment is often expressed among our own people.

It is often noticeable in many municipal governments and legislative assemblies, that the "tonguey" men of superficial intelligence can sway public feeling, and get results while those of solid achievement and good judgment remain helpless to impress their point of view upon the public.

The people of real worth and intelligence should realize that the power to express themselves forcibly is an essential element in achievement. The man of skill and wisdom is generally handicapped unless he is able to put his thoughts into effective speech, and to express his ideas so clearly that the average man can get his point of view and see the merit of his views.

Here is where many of our thinking men fall down. They fail in ability to express themselves. They are apt to give up in attempts to exercise leadership, and retire in an attitude of alofness and contempt. Intellectual power is of little use unless it enables a man to lead others. And before a man can accomplish anything with his gifts, he must acquire this power of persuasive speech, so that he can impress his thoughtful views on his fellow citizens.

That is why every school and college ought to give prominence to courses in public speech and debating, so that people who have intelligent ideas and scientific information and experience in executive positions, can get their ideas over to the people. The doers must learn to talk, before they can exercise their full value of influence.

GRIEF BOWED TOWN BURIES FIRE VICTIMS

Cleveland, S. C., is grief stricken over the death of seventy-six children, parents and friends in a schoolhouse fire. It is useless to elaborate on the details of the fire which resulted from a rickity fastening causing an oil lamp to fall to the floor during an entertainment being given by the children.

The suffering caused by such fires as this is beyond understanding and yet almost weekly we read of school house tragedies where one or more children meet death. The only difference between this fire and others is in the number killed, and this will bring it forcibly to the attention of the whole nation.

We sometimes complain of the crankiness of insurance inspectors but when we remember that the American people each year allow 15,000 persons and some $500,000,000 in property to be wiped out by fire, when about 90 per cent of such death and loss is preventable it looks like somebody needs more rigid regulations.

The Underwriters Laboratories in Chicago has been testing every kind of building and household equipment as to its fire proof or fire resisting qualities and its advice on those matters is free to the public.

Carelessness with fire is equally dangerous in a town like Cleveland or in a great City like New York. This awful disaster should warn every household in the land to be careful with fire and let parents demand that public officials see that school houses and public buildings are properly safeguarded so that another Cleveland catastrophe cannot occur.

One of the things which we can never understand summer or winter is how a woman can get through a cold successfully, considering the size of a handkerchief.

We would like to think up some kind of punishment for the fellow who invented the green and red slippers we see Maryville women wearing every day.

Just let some merchant put the sign "Home Grown" on any garden truck or fruit no matter where it comes from and it will go faster and at a higher price than without it.

Stanberry Couple Get Royal Welcome

Stanberry, Mo., June 13.—Required to ride a mule about the principal streets of the town, arrested and jailed for a few moments on a charge of driving a vehicle which had no tail lights and the victims of various other hazing pranks, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stapleton were accorded a royal welcome on their return home from their marriage in Kansas City. The wedding occurred at the home of the Rev. Burris Jenkins in Kansas City Friday, but did not become known to the couple's Stanberry friends until just before their arrival here Monday night.

Mrs. Stapleton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Childs of Pittsburg, Okla., and before her marriage was a member of the staff of teachers of the Stanberry public schools. Mr. Stapleton, publisher of the Stanberry Owl-Headlight, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Stapleton of Albany.

American Citizenship

What is a citizen? What is an American? These are questions which it would be well for every one of us to pause long enough in our struggle for the material things of life to answer. It means something more than a mere classification of an individual according to where he lives; the answer given by each member of our society determines the color of the life blood of the nation. Citizenship, and American citizenship, as we are interested in it, is no less real because it is intangible; no less recognizable because it is concealed in the breasts of men.

This includes every item of expense. Total appropriations made by the convention have been $450,000, leaving a balance of $48,215.44.

Code Body Rejects Farm Legislation

Kahoka Man Leads Winning Fight Against Report of Committee

Jefferson City, June 13—Declaring that he represented 70,000 farmers of Missouri, E. Hitt Stewart of Kahoka, member of the constitutional convention, led a fight against the report of the committee on agriculture late today and succeeded in having the first section of the report defeated by the convention, sitting in committee of the whole.

The section, defeated by a vote of 30 to 20, which Stewart declared "was inviting the legislature to appoint commissions and boards to tell the farmers where to get on and off," provided as follows:

"Agriculture, being fundamental to all industry, and the basis of all economic development, and the paramount industry, affecting the happiness, prosperity and welfare of all the people of the state, the legislature shall, forever, by all proper manner and means, promote and encourage agricultural success, progress and welfare; and provide for agricultural research and education."

Flowery Phrases, He Says

Stewart termed this section composed of "mere flowery phrases," and said the farmers were tired of only words.

Ernest Wray of Maryville said that the section savored of class legislation and that he would oppose it. Wray also is a delegate from a farming section of the state.

This section of the report was voted down by a vote of 26 to 22 by the committee of the whole, and provided:

"Farmers and fruit growers engaged in producing agricultural or horticultural products may unite in associations, corporations or otherwise, for the purposes of processing, preserving and marketing such products, of persons so engaged, and for the promotion of such industries; and such capacities, have agencies, make cntracts and perform any acts necessary to effect such purposes."

Members opposing this section pointed out that all the provisions of the section were provided for by the co-operative farmers law passed by the last legislature.

Prizes for Winners in the Beef Show

Medals To Best Teams In the Different Counties In Baby Beef Exhibit At St. Joseph

Gold, silver and bronze medals to winning teams.

County agents in Northwest Missouri have arranged for a beef cattle judging contest to be participated in by teams from the different counties in Northwest Missouri, from which members of Boys' and Girls' Baby Beef Clubs will exhibit baby beeves at the district show at St. Joseph next Oteober. In each county where members of the Baby Beef Club desire to participate, county agents will train club members in judging baby beeves. A team of three members will be selected to represent each county in the contest at the district fair. The contest will include judging baby beeves of all breeds and giving oral reasons for their placings in the different classes to the judges of the contest. All county agents will contribute to a fund to purchase gold, silver and bronze medals for members of the winning teams; and a silver cup to be awarded to the high man of the contest.

Final arrangements for the judging contest were made at the conference of County Agents at St. Joseph, June 7th. County Agents Guy Q. McDaniel of Buchanan County, Nicholas of Clinton, Davis of Holt, and Mr. Geo. Prettyman, a farmer from Atchison County, together with H. M. Garlock, Club leader of the Extension Service of Columbia were present at the meeting.

It is probable that a judging team from members of the Baby Beef Club in Nodaway County will be selected to participate in the contest as several have already signified their interest in the matter.

KEY

M.—Polarine Medium.
H.—Polarine Heavy.
S. H.—Polarine Special Heavy.
E. H.—Polarine Extra Heavy.

N. B.—For recommendations of grades of Polarine to use in automobiles and tractors, consult chart at any Standard Oil Co. (Indiana) station.

POLARINE is made for you. The harder you use your car, the more hours a day you drive—the more you need Polarine. The more you drive in heavy traffic—the more essential that you use Polarine.

WHY? Because a commercial car, being run for profit, undergoing hard use, simply cannot afford the piling up of damage and the waste incidental to wrong lubrication. Polarine reaches and protects every friction point. The grade of Polarine indicated in the Chart as the correct lubricant for your machine has been determined scientifically after study of the oiling system of your particular make of engine. Pump—screen—oil pipes—grooves of the bearings—piston clearance—all these factors were considered.

Use Polarine
THE PERFECT MOTOR OIL
Made in Five Grades

It gives your engine flexibility, so that in city traffic or in heavy going you need not change so frequently to "low." It maintains at working temperature a complete film of oil between piston and cylinder walls, avoiding "scored" cylinders, assuring perfect compression. Change your motor oil every 500 miles for greater economy.

Because Polarine is perfect in body it maintains the piston seal perfectly. This means that the grade of Polarine which our engineering staff has recommended for your truck will correctly lubricate your machine, insure its satisfactory performance under all working conditions, prevent overheating of cylinders with the resulting radiator troubles. It is heavy enough to minimize fluid friction.

Polarine is a primary product of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). It is manufactured by trained men in the finest refineries in the world. The high quality of Polarine is invariable and always maintained.

Nearly every one of us is hoping the time will come when we can boss someone.

Have you ever noticed how unmarried girls talk of what they will do when they are married and how married women talk of what they did before they were married?

WAS GRANDMOTHER AT 26

Mrs. Morris Josephs of Chicago, here seen with one of her grandchildren, claims a record as the world's youngest grandmother. When, at the age of eleven, she came in from playing hide and seek one day in her native city of Tiflis, Russia, her mother advised her that on the morrow she would be wed to a man thirty years old. Before she was twelve she gave birth to a daughter. The daughter, Mary, was wed at the age of fourteen and before she was fifteen gave birth to a baby girl, thus making Mrs. Morris Josephs a grandmother at twenty-six.

Careless Smokers Destroyed in 5 Years $73,000,000 in Property

Fire Prevention Week is not only a move advanced by the insurance men of the country. It is supported by modern thinking people of all occupations.

A special effort is being exerted by the various State Fire Prevention Associations to secure the elimination of fire hazards in schools, churches and hospitals. With an average of five schools, five churches, and one hospital a victim of fire daily, some radical improvements must necessarily be made.

The committee on Safety to Life of the National Fire Prevention Association still insists that 90 per cent of our schools are fire traps, and yet we require by law that 20 per cent of our total population spend the best part of 200 days each year in such buildings! From 1916 to 1920 the national board of under writers had reported to them 9,187 school-house fires.

Fire Prevention Week also strikes directly at negligence and carelessness. Records show us that for five years, 1915 to 1919, inclusive, more than seventy-three million dollars' worth of property was destroyed by fire directly traceable to the carelessness of smokers. A large percentage of smokers carelessly toss cigarette and cigar stubs, "heels" from pipes and the remainder of burning matches among combustibles.

Then there is the careless mother and father who go away from home and leave their children locked inside of the house. A fire is breaking out every minute in America and no one can tell but what it may be his house the next minute.

Too great care cannot be taken in handling and storing gasoline. One gallon of gasoline has the explosive power of eighty or ninety pounds of dynamite. Gasoline vapor is heavier than air and will float along the floor, doing no harm until it meets its affinity in the shape of a spark or flame; then things pick up and happenings are in rapid succession, after which the premises and occupants may never look the same.

Many fires are caused by combustion. Oily rags and mops will not permit a dark closet to remain dark long. They want more light, and what's more, they get it.

Fire Prevention Week has met with wonderful success all over the United States. Fire Prevention is not a science; it is a sense. There is no mystery about it; no difficult rules or restrictions. Fires are gluttons and need food. If the food is taken away the fires starve.

It is never wise to judge a woman by the clothes she does not wear, the observer of the passerby here tells us.

The way the line of least resistance is used we are surprised it is not worn out.

S.S.S. stops Rheumatism

"Rheumatism? Me? No, indeed, it's all gone, every bit of it! It's sunshine and joy for me now for the first time in years. I feel a wonderful glory again in the free motion I used to have when my days were younger. I look at my hands and think of the twists and swellings they used to have. I bend way over to the floor. I haven't been able to do that in many years. I can thank S. S. S. for it all! To me it was a rising sun of joy and liberty. Brothers and sisters in misery, do not close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. It is here and now for all of you. S. S. S. is waiting to help you." There is a reason why S. S. S. will help you. When you increase the number of your red-blood-cells, the entire system undergoes a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood-strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red-cells leads to a long list of troubles. Rheumatism is one of them. S. S. S. is the great blood-cleanser, blood-builder, system strengthener, nerve invigorator. It stops skin eruptions, too, pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema. It builds up run-down, tired men and women, beautifies complexions, makes the flesh firmer. Start S. S. S. today. It is sold at all good drug stores. The larger size is more economical.

for this increasingly popular trip. For those visiting the New England country there is a map of the recently adopted road marking system. A large folding road map of the entire country east of Chicago accompanies the Guide.

A feature of the Associated Tours Guide that motorists particularly appreciate is that the itineraries are arranged to allow for logical stopping places at the end of each day's run at towns where accommodations may be readily secured. Synopsis of State Motor laws, ferry schedules, and lists of good hotels and garages also go to increase the Guide's usefulness to the automobilist.

For the accommodation of car owners the Guide will be distributed through local news dealers, bookstores and drugstores in all parts of the country or may be obtained by remitting fifty cents to cover cost and postage to The Automobile Club of America, 247 West 54th Street, New York City.

HONOR THE FLAG!

Meaning of the Sacred Symbol—Interesting Information.

The anniversary of the birthday of the Flag of the United States, June 14, 1777, the date on which it was adopted by Congress as the National emblem, has been set apart as a fitting occasion for the American people formally to pay to the National Colors the honor and respect which is their due, and thus manifest their love and affection for their country.

The commemoration of Flag Day by patriotic exercises was first observed in 1890, upon the recommendation of the Connecticut Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. The propriety of this custom was at once recognized by the several patriotic societies and the public generally. The celebration of Flag Day has since developed widespread popularity.

Among the objects of Flag Day are the crystalization of sentiment against the desecration of the Flag, and the promotion of public opinion in favor of the customary observances of respect due the national emblem. Many civic and patriotic societies have cooperated to these ends and all citizens should give every such effort loyal support.

Meaning of Colors.

The colors of the flag may be thus explained: The red is for valor, zeal and fervency; the white for hope, purity, cleanliness of life and rectitude of conduct; the blue the color of heaven, for reverence to God, loyalty, sincerity, justice and truth.

The star (an ancient symbol of India, Persia and Egypt) symbolizes dominion and sovereignty, as well as lofty aspiration. The constellation of stars within the union, one star for each state, is emblematic of our Federal Constitution which reserves to the States their individual sovereignty except as to rights delegated by them to the Federal Government.

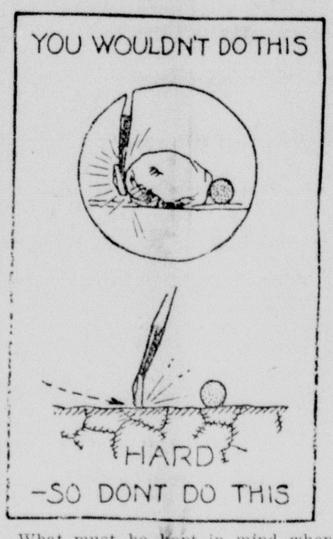
The symbolism of the Flag was thus interpreted by Washington: "We take the stars from Heaven, the red from our mother country, separating it by white stripes, thus showing that we have separated from her, and the white stripes shall go down to posterity representing Liberty."

Deep Significance

The American Flag is unique in the deep and noble significance of its message to the entire world, a message of national independence, of individual liberty, of idealism, of patriotism.

It incarnates for all mankind the spirit of Liberty and the glorious ideal of human Freedom; not the freedom of unrestraint of the liberty of license, but an unique ideal of equal opportunity for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness safe-guarded by the stern and lofty principles of duty, of righteousness and of justice and attainable by obedience to self-imposed laws.

Golf Pointers



What must be kept in mind when playing a ball from very hard ground?

Answered by
LAURIE AYTON

Always a consistent place winner in the big tournaments—National open, Metropolitan Open, Western Open, and sectional tournaments. Famed for his accuracy and steadiness under fire.

In playing from very hard ground hit the ball and hit it clean, without taking turf before the shot. Hitting hard ground with the club before the ball is struck will spoil the direction of the shot by turning the shaft in the player's hands, and will rob the impact of the firmness and pep which it should have.

Announce Birth of Son.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Rhoades, living near Arkoe, announce the birth of their son, James Blain, Monday, May 28.

Half Minute Interviews

The question asked was: "Do you think the flag pole at Main and Fourth street is unsafe and should be removed and a smaller one erected in the courthouse yard?"

E. L. Townsend, grocer: "It's a bad thing and will blow down some time; and it's out of date and I believe it ought to be removed. I would give $50 towards the erection of a good intersection light upon the spot where the pole is."

Jack Pennington, restaurant owner: "I think it is unsafe and I believe it ought to be removed. If people are afraid of it, it should be taken down. Tomorrow is Flag Day and the pole can't be used. I am in favor of a smaller one being erected in the courthouse yard."

Albert Kuchs, jeweler: "I would favor its removal from the intersection and the erection of a smaller one. I believe it will crystalize at the bottom some time and topple over."

Roscoe Heifner, Insurance: "I don't think the pole leans any more now than it did when it was erected. It is safe and will be for several years. A new hoisting cable could easily be placed on it and I think some organization should be charged with the responsibility of keeping a flag on it."
